Thank you for joining this project update on such short notice. For the conference call, please dial [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] conference code [REDACTED]

MWW and Milwaukee Health Department met this morning and reviewed the project and MWW's planned next steps. We would like your input as well. Local media attention on this topic is likely early next week.

For those of you who did not have the benefit of our meeting this morning, I will be available on the conference call line starting at 11:30 to provide any additional information and try to answer any questions that you may have in advance of the full group call.

A confidential draft report is attached as background for the results of the pilot study.

I look forward to our discussion tomorrow.
